

Brazilian Professionals Beauty of Balayage by

You're invited to a free, by invitation only, educational event on behalf of Twin State and Brazilian Professionals. This three hour complimentary education will perfect your skills in the most commonly sought after color service; the art of balayage.

Join our special guest educator as he shares with you techniques to achieve different lived-in balayage looks, while eliminating damage and extending your color with B3. Be prepared with a note pad and cameras to take pictures and notes of the live model he'll be balayaging. The class will not cover the results of any specific lightening system, but rather your talents as an artist and how to take your artistry to the next level. Seats are limited, guarantee your spot today.

ABOUT THE EDUCATOR

Thomas Schiavone is a corrective hair specialist from New York City. As a certified master colorist and texture cutting specialist, Thomas has worked alongside top artists from around the world. He developed a passion for Brazilian Blowout after quickly realizing that it was not only the most profitable revenue stream within his salon, but the most impactful because it “gives women the hair of a lifetime”. Thomas joined the Brazilian Professionals team in 2010 as a certified stylist and quickly became the Northeast Regional Education Manager. Now, as one of Brazilian Professionals’ International Trainers, Thomas travels around the world to teach stylists how to make more money and give women the best hair of their life by incorporating Brazilian Blowout and b3 Brazilian Bond Builder into every salon service.
